IMPORTANT: The content in this publication contains "opening posts" for discussion topics that often involve highly provocative theories on a wide range of subjects, and in most cases, have discussion often refines, refutes, or improves the original opening post.

AboveTopSecret.com is the Internet's largest and most popular discussion board community dedicated to the intelligent exchange of ideas and debate on a wide range of "alternative topics" such as conspiracies, UFO's, paranormal, secret societies, political scandals, new world order, terrorism, and dozens of related topics with an impressive demographic mix of members.

With more than 140,000 members generating over 5 million posts of substance that cover more than 400,000 topics in 157 different discussion forums, you could say "the truth is in here."

The Motto: "Deny Ignorance"

More than a slogan and deeper than a mission statement, our members have embraced the motto of "Deny Ignorance" as our reason for being, demanding everyone who posts to aspire to a higher standard of participation. These simple two words have galvanized a broad membership base that spans the spectrum from highly speculative conspiracy writers to staunch skeptics. The result is a unique collaboration of diverse individuals rallying under this simple statement to learn from each other, discover new truths, and imagine new ideas that expand minds.

This motto has life. It has purpose. It demands ATS members to think.

It is a state of mind.

It is a sense of purpose.

It is a statement against the paradigm.

It is a rage against the mindless status-quo.

The idea of "deny ignorance" isn't a goal that ATS hopes to accomplish.
Instead, it's a challenge. A call to all those who come here to aspire to a higher state of awareness through informed discussion and debate.

Deny ignorance is what we do.

It's how we think. It's how we talk. It's how we listen.

Ignorance is the social disease of history that has clouded our minds and dulled our brains.

Is the evil that men do, the reason history repeats, and the cause of intolerance.

We deny it. it's not welcome here. Within these boundaries, it has no strength.

Here, ignorance is denied.

This thread is about the hoaxed report that would appear to support the hoaxed CGI composite images of "drones" that appeared online in 2007.

There is a small group of people who still believe these images represent something that exists beyond cyber space in spite of the fact that every single credentialed imaging expert that has looked at the images plainly states they are 100% CGI creations(the Isaac CARET images) and a composite of real photographs with CGI rendered "craft" added to them (the "drone images"). The motives behind why people would continue to perpetuate a hoax and never mention that several world class experts have labelled it a hoax is a mystery as well, or is it?

The following thread is a grand discussion that ultimately seeks to discover who the hoaxers are and what their motivations could be. There is much in the way of genuine research and excellent speculation to be found in these hundreds of pages of discussion. Enjoy.

Really not to sure what to make of this.

I was fairly sure that the explanations of the photos being CGI were a pretty fair guess, but this kinda opens things up again.

Anyway I'll post the link and see what everyone thinks

[HOAX] 'ET' False Flag Operation to Begin in August [HOAX]

The following "story" is the produce of an unethical, patently flawed attempt at a study that exudes the lowest form of deceit. Before you read the HOAX/"story" you will see the admission of the individual who attempted (and FAILED miserably) to fool this community after his ploy was falling to pieces. AboveTopSecret.com is the place where anyone who is willing to abide our Terms and Conditions is welcome to present their experience/story or theory.

We pride ourselves on offering a civil and courteous "ear" to those who would seek to honestly engage our Membership, we don't tolerate or suffer fools and deceivers.

What you are about to read is the tawdry work of one who sought to abuse our courteous community and was ultimately handed his hat.

"U2U from Ghost Raven to Springer:

Springer,

This was a completely fabricated story. I am not just some jerk who wanted to waste everyone's time, however. I actually was -- as I hinted in my first few posts -- studying how internet hoaxes get started. In fact, I thought that I had left more than enough hints in those posts for everyone who has been around for a long time to figure out what I was doing. In other words, I did not intend to be a malicious liar. Heck, I even picked a storyline that would be patently absurd.

At every stage in this tale I intended to write up an ending 'summary' that would state what I learned/noticed during the hoaxing. My idea was to be a 'friendly' hoaxer who could point out holes in the system... while trying to entertain everyone.

I decided to deliberately dive the thread into the ground, however, when people started talking about hunting me down, having the police arrest me, or going off into the woods. If I really was a horrible jerk I could have easily kept the community spinning for weeks. In fact, I had material written up that would have won a lot of people over. When I decided to end it, however, I decided to do it in a way that would allow everyone to watch what happens to a thread even after it has been debunked. Again, even in the end, I was experimenting.

Was this a bad thing? Not if you think practice makes perfect.

At any rate, I'd be willing to post a reply on the thread that will show how I constructed the hoax, how I altered it, and what I was looking for tomorrow (if you'd like). As much as some people may hate me... keep in mind that, unlike certain other big hoaxes, I did kamikaze it and I am willing to explain it.

Anyways, have a nice night and feel free to copy this message to the thread.

Let me begin this post by saying that I realize, as a new member, many people will be very skeptical of what I am about to say. I also realize that in the past ATS has been the recipient of several hoaxes/scams that went on for months before being uncovered, so I do not expect anyone to believe what I am going to reveal in its entirety (though what I am about to say is the truth). I accept this and acknowledge that skepticism is necessary in any quest for the truth. I only hope that the moderators on ATS will give me the time to disclose the information I have before they make the mistake of categorizing it as a hoax.

First, let me describe how I found this site and why I chose to post here. To be clear... I did not 'find' this site as much as I have been monitoring it for 5+ years. I am well aware of the personal battles, hoaxes, and accurate information that has appeared here over the years. I know what ATS has gotten wrong and right. Why do I know this? Because part of my position with the government involves monitoring sites like these in hopes of 'feeling out' the public's possible reaction to topics like UFOs/ET presence. I did not create a membership beforehand because I have always been a listener. Now, however, there is something I need to speak out about. Please hear me out:

About four months ago my job description changed dramatically. Whereas before I had been led to believe that ET Presence was a hoax designed to mislead America's enemies, I was suddenly (and with a dramatic demonstration) informed that ET Presence was real and that, as someone who specialized in cultural affairs, I would be tasked (among others) with preparing local and state governments for disclosure. Though this was surprising in and of itself, what came to terrify me was the revelation that the ETs (though they are called 'Visitors' within the government) are actually not -- entirely -- the evil villains the public has, through popular culture, come to see them as. They are, it turns out, extremely detached and interested in us purely for scientific reasons. Our government -- or parts of it, namely the military -- have decided, however, to treat the Visitors as hostiles. My new job, as was described to me and apparently others, was to convince local governments that the ETs were hostile invaders so as to further the military's agenda regarding ETs. In other words... I was to write up 'spin' and propaganda that would help win the country's leaders over to our new 'war effort'.

This shocked me because I felt that it would lead our people into a dangerous and possibly world-ending situation. I feel that we cannot possibly defend against the Visitors (at least in a 'fighting' situation) and that the motives of the military are simply wrong-headed. Don't get me wrong, though: I know that our military leaders are well-meaning and honestly do see the Visitors as a threat... I just think they're wrong.

Anyways, what ATS needs to know is that, around early August, a 'false flag' operation will occur that will make the ETs/Visitors look like they are attacking America. Do not believe it. We cannot allow ourselves to be drawn into a war with an enemy like that.

Sorry that I cannot verify my position as I have a family and assets that would surely be taken from me if my identity were revealed.

very strange phonecall today!

Created by: hikix on June 8, flags: 60, replies: 123

At my job today my co-worker sitting next to me received a phonecall from a former client of his. I wasn't really listening to the convo but I did hear him say something concerning a religious experience, or something to that matter.

When he got off the phone he said "my client is out of his freaking mind, he just told me that he was filming a star and caught a supernatural event on the camera, he wouldn't tell me what it was but he hired a lawyer and told me that it is going to be all over fox new, nbc, cbs, etc."

He told my co-worker that they have to meet for coffee to discuss what happened, because he needs intelligent people on his side.

My co-worker really thinks this guy is crazy and wants nothing to do with it, I kind of brushed it off... but I am very curious what he caught on tape, so I told my co-worker that maybe we should sit down with him and just see what he's got.

I promise you guys I will work as hard as I can to obtain the video (if it even is in fact anything of substance). But this is really up to my co-worker who doesn't seem to have any interest in this.

Anyway, this happened in NY, it was filmed by a muslim man (I will keep his name to myself) and this guy was genuinely convinced he has seen something.

So, if anything, something comes up involving a muslim man from NY taping an object in the sky, you can be 100% certain it is a genuine video and not a hoax.

But once again, I will try my hardest to pursue this and get this video on this site!!

Press Release: Jones Report
Reporter Arrested on Orders of Giuliani Press Secretary
Charged with Criminal Trespass Despite Protest of CNN Staff and Official Event Press Credentials at GOP Debate in New Hampshire
Manchester, NH - Freelance reporter Matt Lepacek, reporting for Infowars.com, was arrested for asking a question to one of Giuliani's staff members in a press conference. The press secretary identified the New York based reporter as having previously asked Giuliani about his prior knowledge of WTC building collapses and ordered New Hampshire state police to arrest him.
Jason Bermas, reporting for Infowars and America: Freedom to Fascism, confirmed Lepacek had official CNN press credentials for the Republican debate. However, his camera was seized by staff members who shut off the camera, according to Luke Rudkowski, also a freelance Infowars reporter on the scene. He said police physically assaulted both reporters after Rudkowski objected that they were official members of the press and that nothing illegal had taken place. Police reportedly damaged the Infowars-owned camera in the process.
Video of the incident (discovered by ATS member "hoochymama"):

----- original opening post -----

I'm getting sketchy information that "We Are Change" activists attending the Republican debate have been arrested.

We seem to have confirmation that Luke Rudkowski and his camera man (Mike?) was arrested and taken into custody.

Jason Bermas of Loose Change was also reported to be in the same group, but we're not sure if he was arrested.

Does anyone have any additional information on this? The data I've been given indicates Luke was arrested simply because the "security team" recognized him.

This discovery to me was incredibly profound to say the least, the message in them became much clearer. I'm hesitant to go it a rambling on how I believe these patterns relate to the universe. So I thought I'd share some links so people can make up their own minds. Just keep in mind that vibration or frequency gives rise to geometric structure the higher the frequency the more complex the structure.

The original policy alert below also still applies.

Any inappropriate comments, insults, topic derailment, or trolling will result in immediate posting ban or account termination.

We've received an overwhelming number of member complaints since the topic of "TV Fakery" splashed on the ATS scene a few days ago. Most of the member complaints are dealing with the trollish nature of the new member(s) promoting these theories, and a handful of supporting characters.

When participating with the members of AboveTopSecret.com, there are certain standards of conduct and cooperation that are not simply expected, they are demanded.

We seem to be among several sites targeted by a recently formed "9/11 Research" group who espouses a particularly provocative theory of "no planes at the WTC" and "TV Fakery." What we (staff and members) have noticed about this group is that their individuals engage in what they hope is an IMPENETRABLE approach in debating. They appear to have no REAL interest in defending or discussing their theories. Instead they use provocative ideas and inflammatory language ("shills" for example) to bait people into extended debates filled with intentionally frustrating diversions, insults and accusation. Their activity in ATS threads prove they are disinterested in fact, reason, logic, or evidence while attempting to portray themselves as passionately convinced of their own highly questionable positions.

While we have a long standing tradition of supporting passionate debate of nearly any topic, we insist that all participants do so with respect and decorum. Spamming our forum with multiple topics and ignoring well-presented questions demonstrates no intent to show respect. And calling ATS members who disagree with their position "shills" lacks the required decorum. From this point forward, ONE TV FAKERY THREAD WILL REMAIN OPEN.

This one: (links removed, visit the thread for external references)

The opening posts of all "TV Fakery" threads will be modified to direct users to this thread. And likewise, this remaining open thread's first post will contain links to important questions raised by our members.

For now, new "TV Fakery" or "No Planes" threads based on the work of this group will be deleted. Please use the (links removed, visit the thread for external references) to add any new material to the discussion.

Repeated attempts to start new threads may result in account termination. If we see an improvement in tone, and an effort for collaboration, this restriction will likely be lifted. It's up to them.

It's unfortunate that what seems to be a habitually malicious group has seen fit to act this way over events that deserve thoughtful debate, open research, and most of all collaborative participation. We've added additional staff to the 9/11 forum, and we'll be watching closely. Members, please help us by using the new "post alert" button when you see issues you believe we should be aware of.

And before we hear potential complaints of an uneven approach to moderation, YES, long-standing members will indeed be favored over the new participants who have shown no respect.

Thank you in advance for your cooperation.

This is an amazing video. If you dont have time to watch it all, just watch the first 4 minutes or so and see what infra red cameras have picked up.

This astounded me, i didnt know cameras were seeing these things.

Is this for real?

If it is, then there cant be any doubt that the governments know that we are surrounded by ufos daily.

If you do get time, it is well worth watching. Some amazing footage and interviews.

It's Official: The Crash of the U.S. Economy has begun

Created by: Kelldor on June 14, flags: 32, replies: 220

Hi folks!

I wanted to let you all know about this article. It is a critically important read, and very much is in line with specific aspects of the Federal Reserve and Monetary Policy that Ron Paul has been talking about.

I don't need to go into any explanation, as the title says it all, but I strongly urge you to read it. Furthermore, Ron Paul and Dennis Kucinich get special mention in the article for being the only Presidential candidates that stand up to the Fed's policies.

(links removed, visit the thread for external references)

Global Research is a very good site. I have been visiting them for a long time. They report what is really going on, regularly slam mainstream media for it's censorship, spin, and lack of coverage on issues that matter, and they really seem to back up what they say. It mentions the Carlilse Group and Builderberg as well, implying that they have given the go ahead for the crash, and they are the ones that stand to gain from it. When you combine this coming economic collapse with the new NSPD51/HSPD20 Presidential Directives that Bush signed late last month, it becomes appearant that the NWO will not even need to do a false flag operation on the U.S. like a nuclear detonation and blame it on terrorists. They can crash the economy, and now that is all Bush needs to do to implement Martial Law, Continuity of Government, and REX 84.

Lastly, the House just passed the bill to restrict people with mental histories from owning guns, so if you have ever been depressed in the past, and taken prosac or zolof, your about to lose you 2nd amendment.

Good luck all.

I need some help with a strange cryptic message.Please!

Created by: Zeeko on June 5, flags: 31, replies: 128

Hi,

Even though my user stats show me as completely new I've actually been a member for a few years under the username 'Ezekial' which is giving me strife (cannot recover old password).

Anyhow onto the topic of my return to this great website (I've been away for quite a while for work).

At work today this rather bizarre old guy came into the customer service section of our electronics repair lab and after buying a few bits and pieces (it was his second time in the shop for the day).

No offensive to French people but I couldn't understand his very thick accent but he rambled on asking how many staff we have and a few other questions which I answered, to which he gave me 3 cards with the same cryptic message on them (attached links).

(links removed, visit the thread for external references)

(links removed, visit the thread for external references)

Now I believe I have seen these before but where from I have no idea.

My ideas/sandbox theories on symbols and their meaning.

The text on the front of the card was a little hard to read so I went over it with a pen and it reads:

PM DIXIT (or) DIXTT ET AL E TU

Some of which sounds like french;
"et al" which translates to the english "et al." = "and others"
"tu" translates to "you"
I cannot find anything for DIXIT/DIXTT.
PM I guess is = Post-Meridiem

In the top left corner is what looks to be a hand written 'y' - I checked this under a microscope and there is a depression in the paper and it embosses onto the other side. Or could it be a badly drawn 'gamma'?

(visit the thread to view linked images) if gamma is this pointing out that the card is a gamma function similar to a zeta function?

γ represents:

- * the lower incomplete gamma function
- * the third angle in a triangle, opposite the side C
- * the Euler-Mascheroni constant in mathematics.
- * second-order sensitivity to price in mathematical finance
- * the Lorentz factor in special relativity

The top half of the front seems to be an equation after the lightglobe (idea/bright?)
Inside the square is the symbol lowercase epsilon:
(visit the thread to view linked images)

ε represents:

- * a small positive quantity; see limit
- * a random error in regression analysis
- * in set theory, the limit ordinal of the sequence $\omega, \omega^{\omega}, \omega^{\omega^{\omega}}, \dots$.
- * in computer science, the empty string.
- * the Levi-Civita symbol. * in electromagnetics, dielectric permittivity.
- * emissivity
- * strain
- * set membership symbol \in is based on ϵ

The formula consists of (and these are my theories):
FRONT SIDE
u = "you (me in this context?)" = = "is equal to"
{ } = "set brackets" {a,b,c} means the set consisting of a, b, and c

(visit the thread to view linked images) = Lower case alpha α represents:

- * the first angle in a triangle, opposite the side A.
- * one root of a quadratic equation, where β represents the other
- * the statistical significance of a result
- * the false positive rate in statistics
- * the reciprocal of the sacrifice ratio
- * the fine structure constant in physics
- * the angle of attack of an airplane
- * an alpha particle (He+2)
- * angular acceleration in physics
- * the linear thermal expansion coefficient

· = "inner product of" but these are usually done with '·, ·' or (·), '·' is used in matrices.
± = "plus-minus" however again two contexts; both '+1 and 1-1' AND 10 ± 2 or equivalently $10 \pm 20\%$ means the range from $10 - 2$ to $10 + 2$ (does the fact its superscripted mean anything?)

A Public Banning Today...

Created by: SkepticOverlord on June 14, flags: 30, replies: 254
A rare public banning today on ATS.
Normally we don't discuss bannings, but given recent events in our 9/11 Conspiracies forum, it seems appropriate to be open about this one.
After much consideration and discussion among our staff, it is with sincere regret that I announce the termination of ATS membership privileges for "links removed, visit the thread for external references." This is unfortunate since, until recently, it has often been a benefit for our membership to have direct access to one of the early pioneers of vocal 9/11 conspiracy speculation.
Also, in what may be a first for us, off-ATS content and activity factored heavily in our decision to ban him. Many members may feel his on-ATS actions are cause for banning, but that's not where we focused our decision.
If you've been paying attention to this (9/11) forum, we appear to have become one of many "battle grounds" (as one member put it) in an escalating war of attention-seeking among competing "9/11 Truth" groups.
Killtown was exploiting the critical nature of ATS members by posting controversial theories here, participating minimally in responding to the critical discussion, then discussing his being "attacked" or "censored" on ATS via postings on other safe harbor websites. It appears as though we were being used as a means to build some kind of macho credibility that involved a series of false and insulting accusations directed toward ATS and our members that included "censorship," members as "shills," and everyone "aiding the perps."

Certainly, this is not the first nor the last bit of insulting criticism of ATS by conspiracy extremists. Typically, we've ignored it in favor of focusing on running ATS the way we feel is best for our members (must be working, we have lots of members & traffic). However, in this case, we saw the need to end what was becoming an escalation of abusive exploitation of fair and logical questions from our critical members.

-- IMPORTANT --

I want to add that this action in no way implies any desire to place limits of any kind on the topics that can be discussed in our 9/11 Conspiracies or other forums. Open and honest dialogue on any topic within the boundaries of our Terms & Conditions is what we have stood for, what we stand for now, and always will. Undoubtedly we'll see a cascade of off-site criticism and insulting rhetoric over this action... so be it. We stand by it as the proper choice in the best interests of our members and the flow of productive and civil discussion.

I thought that I had written of my experiences in one thread back in "04" when I first started here. I don't see it anywhere so I have to assume I wrote about my experiences in other people's post so I do apologize.... I just assumed if you read everything here you knew what I was talking about.

I said before I wouldn't rewrite (that it would be a waste of my time) because I was called every name that could be gotten away with here at ATS.

I am willing to take the time to explain things from my age going back.

If there are at least a few interested I will talk to you but please don't insult me and call me names for what I share is what another life form has given me to share.

I am NOT a writer and sometimes I confuse myself trying to explain something but I will try my best to get everything across to you.

I'm not playing games here and if you want to know what I know about the Grey's I will do my best to share with you.

My words aren't exact but that was the effect of them, I know people here listen to Fox did anyone catch the exact wording. It sounded as if he was trying to make the point it was a UFO.

The 2012 Doom Factor (The Pole Shift will wipe us out)

Created by: dbates on June 26, flags: 25, replies: 57

Here's an interesting video that I ran into on Google. It's a 1 hour and 22 min. production on past global catastrophes. Basically it's a 2012 doomsday video, but it's portrayed with a scientific twist. It seems that the secret to past societies being wiped out was the physical polar shift of the Earth. With a few exceptions the movie is very well done.

My main gripe with the video was that they passed off the Mayan calendar as being the amount of time it takes for our solar system to travel around the galaxy. Later they did go back and focus on the issue being more of a matter of the Earth crossing the Milky Way's equator line but I was insulted by the first insinuation.

Other amusing points include that that the change comes quickly but cites the Biblical Apocalypse as being 7 years long. Arguably it actually 3 and a half years and he does say that we'll see changes before hand. He could have explained this a little better. The most amusing thing comes at the first of the video. We see two cars with "Horizon Project" on the side driving to a location, but then they're never seen or used again. I guess the vehicles were supposed to give the impression of a research team.

All in all I'll give it a 4 out of 5 stars on the Apocalypse scale. :up: Great production.

who's ready to Quit society?

Created by: pweagle on June 27, flags: 24, replies: 98

Quitting society

Ok the idea is that we as a people are controlled and manipulated by government but it fact its this thing called society.

Its not al that fare fetched , in fact its very clear, no matter where you look in the world, media and history. Take a look, this is the foundation in which we bass our lives.

We are taught as children by our parents that school is essential to learn the basics eventually leading to a point where we should be self sufficient for society when we are past a certain age. We are also told that we should go to college to better our knowledge of the world and learn a skill or a trade and achieve a degree that says you've spent X amount of years and X amount of money to achieve a bench mark on the social ladder. After words go on to make money to buy the fundamentals of life like a house, car eventually get married and have kids and be come the ideal contributor to society.

Of if your not so lucky to go to college base upon you your ethnic background or social statues that your better off going into the military where you'll learn a trade and skill and money for college at the price of you servitude. Fighting for your country in the name of freedom and democracy.

This is the world in which we live, its what we are taught.

Here we are but a number, a contributor, expendable asset for other to succeed and manipulate to better themselves and deepen their pockets. Yet every one is so individualized yet so much alike, who has the same ideas and aspirations in life, to succeed in life. Everyone goes about it in different ways and manages to but heads over the same things.

THE QUESTION

Ok enough of that now here the kicker.

Do you ever stop to think that there has to be more or a simpler way of life? Time and time again I've thought about this even more now, Every job I ever had I question why or what the f am I doing here I know I have to work and make money to eat and have a place to sleep but why is this the way its has to be done. Because this is the way the world works? Every one does it and no one questions it. I'm mean life doesn't have to be so dame complicated the world doesn't have to be so meshed together in chaos

There are a lot jobs in the world but how many actually makes sense, I mean working at McDonalds pays your bill but teaches you what? How to flip pre cooked meat. there are so many stupid things we have in our live that we could live with out and if you sit down and think about it for a while you'd think of many I'm sure.

Ok this very think I've always question has taken me from college to job to job to even to the army all of which I've quite because of this very question I've ponder. Yeah some may say I'm a loser just don't know what I want in life and its all part of growing up bla bla bla... But I do know and its becoming ever so clearly to. I'm just not cut out for society period because to me it just doesn't work. I really hate being around people everything make me mad. I consider my self to be unique in many ways.

I'm truly on the verge of dropping everything, backing up some gear and just start walking away from it all.

I think every one in their life should go on a vision quest or a walkabout and just question everything and determine what's important in life. Find their true path in life not just a dead end job that get you no where. Even people who are doing good, what ever that means? are merely distracted.

I'd be nice if things were different or even getting better, where every body stopped being stupid and coming up with ideal on how to better the world and acting on them but they just an't period, you ever dream of a world where everything in harmony and peaceful where life actually make sense and there's purpose. Well its just that a dream there's to many heads to turn.

But my question

Who here feels the same?? Are you ready and able to make such a big sacrifice to just quit society as We know it?

Legal Affidavit: Walter Haut Discloses Roswell Truth (released after death)

Created by: infinite8 on June 20, flags: 22, replies: 109

Bill Birnes, publisher of UFO Magazine was on Coast to Coast tonight discussing major disclosure. Lt. Walter Haut, came forward with what he experienced on the day of the Roswell crash. On July 8, 1947 Walter Haut, the 509th Public Information Officer, released a press release that stated in part, "The many rumors regarding the flying disc became a reality yesterday...The flying object landed on a ranch near Roswell sometime last week." This was later recanted and the weather ballon theory was brought forward.

In 2002 Walter Haut swore out a notarized affidavit that was not be released until after his death. Now the true Roswell event is being brought out written and detailed in his message. In 2 weeks the full article will be released.

This sounds amazing that an Air Force officer that witnessed the Roswell event has allowed us such deep insight that he himself could not speak of until after his death.

Is it the truth this time? True disclosure?

There are a few different way Haut has told this story over the years though all point to a flying saucer recovered at Roswell.

(links removed, visit the thread for external references)

"...AFFIDAVIT

My name is Walter Haut.

My address is: [-----BLACKED OUT-----]

I am retired.

In July 1947, I was stationed at the Roswell Army Air base, serving as the base Public Information Officer. At approximately 9:30 AM on July 8, I received a call from Col. William Blanchard, the base commander, who said he had in his possession a flying saucer or parts thereof. He said it came from a ranch northwest of Roswell, and that the base Intelligence Officer, Major Jesse Marcel, was going to fly the material to Fort Worth.

Col. Blanchard told me to write a news release about the operation and to deliver it to both newspapers and the two radio stations in Roswell. He felt that he wanted the local media to have the first opportunity to have the story. I went first to KGFL, then to KSWs, then to the Daily Record and finally to the Morning Dispatch.

The next day, I read in the newspaper that General Roger Ramey in Fort Worth has said the object was a weather balloon.

I believe Col. Blanchard saw the material, because he sounded positive about what the material was. There is no chance that he would have mistaken it for a weather balloon. Neither is there any chance that Major Marcel would have been mistaken.

In 1980, Jesse Marcel told me that the material photographed in Gen. Ramey's office was not the material he had recovered.

I am convinced that the material recovered was some type of craft from outer space.

I have not been paid nor given anything of value to make this statement, and it is the truth to the best of my recollection.....

Now to see what the WHOLE story is in his 2002 Affidavit which will come out in 2 weeks in UFO Magazine.

On Coast to Coast AM there were a few leaks to what will be contained in the new affidavit. It does mention Major Jesse Marcel and Lt. Walter Haut had both seen the real wreckage. The civilian sector started releasing news about a vehicle all over the place. The following morning he went into the Roswell staff meeting at 7 AM and names of the attendees in the meeting are listed. From Fort Worth Texas Brigadier General Roger Ramey and Brig. Gen. Thomas Jefferson Dubose flew in to attend the meeting. This discussion was about the debris field at a second sight approx 40 miles north of town. Two sightings of crash debris. Lt. Haut stated, "Samples of wreckage were passed around the table and all got to examine. It was unlike any material I had or have ever seen in my entire life with unusual markings." There was a discussion over whether to disclose the truth of what had happened. The initial decision was to let the public know about the Roswell incident to divert attention from the secondary debris field just north and many people had already witnessed the object. Col Blanchard suggested that Haut go to Hangar 84, where from a safe distance he was allowed to observe a 12x15 foot egg shaped vehicle that appeared metallic with no landing gear, windows, wings or anything. He then states that he could see covered bodies with only the heads exposed and that the unusual large heads were observable, but details of facial features were not able to be seen at that distance. He did observe the small stature of the bodies, and determined that they were about the size of a 10 year old child. Col. William Blanchard then motioned with his hand that they were about this tall (indicating about 4 feet from the ground). This seems to back up what many others have said including Jesse Marcel's son and Corso.

This is just an excerpt from what is to come. I am looking forward to reading the whole letter.

UFO, holes in ground and a psychic - shocking

Created by: relu84 on June 6, flags: 21, replies: 31

Before I get to the psychic and his visions, an introduction to Zdany and holes in ground.

1. Zdany, Poland

One of the best UFO photographs ever taken and a well documented observation. I suggest you read about it on the page linked above.

2. Holes in ground

Recently, a few articles popped up describing odd holes in the ground. They look like being drilled, with high precision, and no ground around the hole. The holes are up to 12,5 meters deep! Here are two examples (articles in Polish):and

3. The Psychic

Polish psychic, Krzysztof Jackowski, is widely known in Poland for his help in finding missing persons. He is often asked for help by police and families of the missing ones. He helped in such cases hundreds of times and his popularity even hurts his health - so many people ask for his help.

As a friend of the Nautilus Foundation's owner, he was asked to take a look at the pictures from Zdany.

And here the story begins.

Again, it's all in Polish, but it still should be entertaining to see a psychic work.

What's so amazing about it?

The first thing he says after touching the Zdany pictures was "a screw". Pretty odd thing to say about a UFO, right?

Then, he is given other pictures of a similar object, taken elsewhere in Poland. He says something about a church, a nun, who is afraid and wishes to keep her personality hidden. But that person couldn't allow these pictures to dust somewhere no one will ever see them, so she decided to send them to the Foundation, but write an anonymous letter, signed "Zygmunt SOUL". The last name surprised the psychic, but these details aren't relevant right now ;)

Then, a very shocking thing - mr Jackowski again says "a screw". Now, he gives more details - this object is flying out from a very large object, very far away. It is a drone, unmanned aircraft, which is searching for potassium rich ground... and it drills holes in the ground and places something at 5 meters deep. He described this something as "storing genetics", and the object itself as "interferer". Then, he said that this is done as preparation for something that is going to happen soon.

He was very shocked all the time, believing he was talking BS, but then he was told we have found these holes all over Poland and in other places in Europe, he couldn't believe it! When asked who is sending these drills, he only said "millions" and had no idea what it meant. Millions of people? Millions of alien races?

There is also one video which was not shown by the Nautilus Foundation - they wish to investigate it first, before releasing it to the public. It sucks for us, but I believe this decision is right - too much info at once could cause trouble (what if we could summon these objects? too many people would try that and... perhaps make the visitors reluctant to show themselves again).

The Foundation found the place the psychic told about in the vision - the monastery. They are on their way to this place right now. Also, the psychic said something about ruins of an old castle near the area, where these objects are visiting for a very, very long time.

What do you think about all this? I must say, this thing shocked me a lot! Mr Jackowski was not informed about any of the cases - he wasn't ever interested in UFOs and even though he has psychic powers, he likes to "walk steadily on the ground", doesn't really believe in paranormal stuff... he was also pretty shocked during these visions and will perform another in the coming weeks.

What's most shocking, is the "storing genetics" and preparation for something that is going to happen... I couldn't sleep last night!

Anyone Not Believe There's a NWO/Illuminati Conspiracy?

Created by: freight tomsen on June 20, flags: 20, replies: 125

This post and the subsequent replies are quotes that should prove to any skeptic that the NWO/Illuminati are real.

"It was not my intention to doubt that the doctrines of the Illuminati had not spread in the United States. On the contrary, no one is more fully satisfied of this fact than I am."

-George Washington, 1782

"The world is governed by very different personages from what is imagined by those who are not behind the scenes."

-Benjamin Disraeli, 1844

"Since I entered politics, I have chiefly had men's views confided to me privately. Some of the biggest men in the United States, in the Field of commerce and manufacture, are afraid of something. They know that there is a power somewhere so organized, so subtle, so watchful, so interlocked, so complete, so pervasive, that they better not speak above their breath when they speak in condemnation of it."

-Woodrow Wilson, 1913

"I am a most unhappy man. I have unwittingly ruined my country. A great industrial nation is controlled by its system of credit. Our system of credit is concentrated. The growth of the nation, therefore, and all our activities are in the hands of a few men. We have come to be one of the worst ruled, one of the most completely controlled and dominated governments in the civilized world. No longer a government by free opinion, no longer a government by conviction and the vote of the majority, but a government by the opinion and duress of a small group of dominant men."

-Woodrow Wilson, 1916

"From the days of Spartacus-Weishaupt to those of Karl Marx, to those of Trotsky, Bela Kun, Rosa Luxembourg, and Emma Goldman, this world wide conspiracy for the overthrow of civilization and for the reconstitution of society on the basis of arrested development, of envious malevolence and impossible equality, has been steadily growing. It played a definitely recognizable role in the tragedy of the French Revolution. It has been the mainspring of every subversive movement during the nineteenth century, and now at last this band of extraordinary personalities from the underworld of the great cities of Europe and America have gripped the Russian people by the hair of their heads, and have become practically the undisputed masters of that enormous empire."

-Winston Churchill, 1920

"The real menace of our Republic is the invisible government which like a giant octopus sprawls its slimy legs over our cities, states and nation. At the head is a small group of banking houses. This little coterie run our government for their own selfish ends. It operates under cover of a self-created screen, seizes our executive officers, legislative bodies, schools, courts, newspapers and every agency created for the public protection."

-N.Y. Mayor, John Hylan, 1922

"Today the path to total dictatorship in the United States can be laid by strictly legal means, unseen and unheard by the Congress, the President, or the people... outwardly we have a Constitutional government. We have operating within our government and political system, another body representing another form of government, a bureaucratic elite which believes our Constitution is outmoded and is sure that it is the winning side. All the strange developments in the foreign policy agreements may be traced to this group who are going to make us over to suit their pleasure. This political action group has its own local political support organizations, its own pressure groups, its own vested interests, its foothold within our government, and its own propaganda apparatus."

-Senator William Jenner, 1954

"The invisible Money Power is working to control and enslave mankind. It financed Communism, Fascism, Marxism, Zionism, Socialism. All of these are directed to making the United States a member of a World Government."

DoD creates computerised alternate reality - SWS

Created by: SimonGray on June 24, flags: 20, replies: 36

I recently came across this news article about a piece of software called Synthetic Environment for Analysis and Simulations - SEAS, which has been adopted and tailored by the Department of Defence into a simulation program called Sentient World Simulation.

The DOD is developing a parallel to Planet Earth, with billions of individual "nodes" to reflect every man, woman, and child this side of the dividing line between reality and AR.

Called the Sentient World Simulation (SWS), it will be a "synthetic mirror of the real world with automated continuous calibration with respect to current real-world information", according to a concept paper for the project.

(visit the thread to view linked images)

Yank a country's water supply. Stage a military coup. SWS will tell you what happens next.

"The idea is to generate alternative futures with outcomes based on interactions between multiple sides," said Purdue University professor Alok Chaturvedi, co-author of the SWS concept paper.

Original source for both quotes above -

I think this is quite a scary concept to be created, and could/would be used to see just how far military/government interaction could be pushed to it's absolute limits to test citizen revolt and response.

The intricacy of the simulation software is obviously very advanced, and is even being pitched to DARPA and the U.S. Department of Homeland Security for possible applications.

Hi everyone..... well, now that the Amigos have let the cat out of the bag.... here's the deal. Johnny and I need the membership's help and involvement to make AboveTopSecret.Com's name a household word AROUND THE WORLD. As the ATS MIX show continually grows in popularity, the key to it's success is YOU, the MEMBER.

Johnny and I have created several member participation segments for you to SOUND OFF or participate in. This particular one will be called "For What It's Worth".

We are going to give you 2 Minutes to talk about anything you want, PRO or CON. A few examples would be:

1. The rising cost of gasoline.
2. The healthcare system.
3. The presidential candidates.
4. The possible war with Iran.
5. Anything that TICKS YOU OFF about your OWN COUNTRY.

These are just so you will get the concept. Your 2 minutes of FAME can be about anything you want to rant about, state a position about or simply make the world aware about in YOUR OWN COUNTRY. There are a few ways to get these to us.

1. HIGH QUALITY: Create an audio (podcast) and e-mail it to us. It MUST be UNDER 10 MEG for our mail system. PLEASE do not record any less than 128 kbps for submission. Be sure and state on your e-mail that it is for "For What It's Worth" as we have several things working.

SEND YOUR SUBMISSIONS TO JOHNNY AT:

dave_and_johnny@mail2world.com

2. DECENT QUALITY: You can call our Skype Account and leave a message on the Skype recording system. Our Skype account is "daverabbit69" for the time being. If you don't want to fool with a Skype account, you can call our Skype-In number at 214-717-4915 (this is a long distance call unless you are in the Dallas area or have free long distance).

INTRO SUGGESTIONS:

"Hi, this is MIKE and my AboveTopSecret.Com USER NAME IS "Sad Sack". For What It's Worth....." then you do your thing. Your 2 MINUTES is on TOPIC.... the INTRO is a freebie.

One last thing, and I know those of you who know me will get a kick out of the "F-Bomb King" saying this, but you cannot use any BAD LANGUAGE. Trust me, if "I" can do it, YOU CAN! :)

That's it. As we are just starting out with this segment concept, we would appreciate it at this point if you would limit your submissions to ONE. As we build on the show concepts and experiment with different things, we may increase this restriction at a later day.

Just have fun with it. It's YOUR TIME to give YOUR OPINION for the world to hear... "For What It's Worth!" The WORLD is waiting to HEAR YOU!

"New Mexico has a new medical marijuana law with a twist: It requires the state to grow its own.

The law, effective Sunday, not only protects medical marijuana users from prosecution — as 11 other states do — but requires New Mexico to oversee a production and distribution system for the drug.

"The long-term goal is that the patients will have a safe, secure supply that doesn't mean drug dealers, that doesn't mean growing their own," said Reena Szczepanski, director of Drug Policy.

Last night, 19 June 2007, between about 18:30 and 19:30 I decided to have a look see at the planets as Venus was pretty close and very bright. Unfortunately I do not have a telescope - after this I am sure going to get one - but I do have a Sony digital video camera with 20X optical zoom and 990X digital which could also take photos, not so great (not so clear for normal use) so I decided to see if I could get some pics or video of the Moon, Saturn and Venus. Well I wasn't expecting too much as the camera is obviously not designed for stargazing or no one would use a telescope. To get to the point, and I support the denial of ignorance, I thought I had to share this and perhaps someone may have seen something resembling this!! Based on what I was observing, I would estimate the Moon between (compass) WNW and NW and Saturn and Venus closer to NW. Moon was about 28°, Saturn at around 24° and Venus at around 15°.

I set up on a tripod and started to focus at the moon, Saturn and Venus moving between the three. I spent more time on Venus as this was the reason for getting out before she dropped below the horizon which would have happened around 9pm.

In trying to focus the v/camera on Venus (not the right tool as mentioned) I picked up a closer "object" due to the zoom factor it was VERY twitchy. I took the stills with the v/camera and also video of Venus far off and then zooming in you can see as this thing "materialises". I did it a few times, moved the camera and did it again. I was on open ground so nothing close by was in frame. (I live on huge grounds). Here are some of the pics. I will get some video and try and post tomorrow.

George W Bush: Last President Of The United States Of America ?

It has come to this...

Today stories released show the future plan for the EU. It will be reorganized into a new "Superstate" with Tony Blair as the 1st President or the EU.

ATS Threads and newlinks:

With Blair in control of the EU Superstate, and Bush in Control of the USA, there is no one to stop the NWO.

It will be World War III.

The "WEST" (NWO) US & EU vs The "East" China, Russia, & Iran.

It will begin before Bush leaves office. It will come in a radical transformation of the USA becoming a war-state, a police-state, like Nazi Germany. Where all industry is controlled by the government and focused on war production. If you arent a soldier, you will be put to work, or rounded up and sent to camps; if they dont just kill you.

It is all so brutally clear. The puzzle pieces falling into place... The new EU superstate is a BIG PIECE. Also the alarming US financial situation illustrated recently on ATS (cant find the thread, someone please post it) about the collapse of our economy.

IT TRULY HAS BEGUN!

Announcing: ATS MIX (coming soon, really)

Created by: SkepticOverlord on June 20, flags: 15, replies: 52

Over the years, AboveTopSecret.com, has become one of the Internet's most popular User-Generated Content destinations, with consistent appearance in the top-20 most trafficked discussion boards (as tracked by Big-Boards.com). During the past six months, we've been examining what has contributed to our success, what's happening in the "Web 2.0" world, and devising several new strategies to take ATS into a new realm... a realm we call: "User-Generated Content Ecosystems."

Our first and most-exciting project is "ATS MIX," a new highly-professional ATS-branded podcast series, with aspirations to become a daily live radio show, featuring our very own Dave Rabbit and Johnny Anonymous.

(visit the thread to view linked images)

Our goal is to develop a two or three times a week podcast that takes advantage of the perpetual source of compelling and provocative content here on ATS. More than just a show about "alternative topics," ATS MIX brings the collective expertise and genius of ATS members to a broader audience. And in doing so, involve ATS members in the on-air content, show development, guest invitations, interviews, debates, and more.

Nearly all such shows carry the personal agendas of the hosts, and our show is different in one important regard: our agenda is simply our members. The show is about you. It's about what you're saying. It features the guests you want. It asks you to participate. It forces you to think.

ATS MIX on AboveTopSecret.com

We are the undisputed "user-generated content king" of this compelling genre of "alternative topics." We have over 3 million posts, more than 110,000 registered members, over 2,100 podcasts, dozens of blogs, and in excess of 1.2 million monthly visitors.

We have a dedicated team of experienced radio industry professionals working to deliver what we believe will be one of the most entertaining and informative shows available...

ATS MIX will be a flagship regular podcast show, featuring experienced radio personalities, that is born from the rich and ever-evolving content ecosystem of AboveTopSecret.com.

ATS MIX is an entertaining summary of ATS topics with expert guests, members, and unique commentary. ATS MIX combines entertaining tongue-in-check delivery of important and provocative topics.

ATS MIX delivers ground-breaking ways to integrate online features and interaction with show personalities and guests.

ATS MIX brings the genre's most reliable and respected brand, AboveTopSecret.com, to expanded audio-content audiences.

ATS MIX is the first to aggressively target the combination of the runaway popularity of Web 2.0 and UGC with live radio.

The most important and unique aspect of our concept is that the ATS website is the core of a "content ecosystem" that fuels the show. ATS members will continually be provided means to offer suggestions for show topics, expert guests, and the ability to feed new late-breaking content into the show. This ground-breaking concept brings the "collective expertise" of online user-generated content into an engaging and entertaining podcast format.

Member Participation: the show will regularly feature members who authored popular threads, provided excellent contributions, and who have key subject matter expertise.

Member Questions During Show: any member can ask the hosts or guests a question through the Web site or through audio recordings.

Content Ideation: members have direct input on a special "member's choice" regular segment and can collaborate with our hosts on developing full segments.

Site Guest Involvement: Expert guests will participate in follow-up questions and answers on the ATS site for several days after their segment on the show.

What's Next For ATS MIX?

Dave Rabbit and Johnny Anonymous will soon be active in a few ATS MIX forums, seeking your input, ideas, concepts, and participation. In addition to our experienced hosts, have engaged experienced radio industry professionals to help us evolve these podcasts into a daily live radio show... a show like no other... where the listeners have an opportunity participate like never before.

Controlling The Masses

Created by: TheGreySwordsman on June 23, flags: 15, replies: 41

For a moment, I'm going to attempt to ignore all specific conspiracies. In order to do this thread justice, I need to introduce a few concepts. These aren't exactly new to many of us in the conspiracy community. However, they need to be addressed.

First Concept: The Illusion of Safety

We all like to think that we're generally pretty safe in our lives. As we go about our business. Our governments like us to believe that we are safe. When the public believes we are secure, we acknowledge the powers that be for granting us this security, and maintaining a level of order in our lives.

Now, think for a moment. How safe are we, really? In reality, there is virtually nothing the government can do to secure us. If someone is determined enough to extinguish our lives, they will find a way.

The government cannot even protect Presidents. Lincoln, JFK, RFK, MLK, Reagan, The Pope. These figures, you'd hope, that we could keep safe. They theoretically represent the power of the people. Yet all of this people were attacked successfully. The list goes on and on. Whether other forces were involved or not, these people were successfully attacked. These people who had far greater security than we the average citizen has.

On September 11th, many Americans woke up to the realization that they could die at any time. The tragedies that followed, the DC Sniper, Anthrax in the mail, Katrina, etc helped to drive the point home.

Yet, people like to believe they are safe. The government feeds the ignorance. "Duck and cover" was suggested to save of from the threat of nuclear attack. Plastic and Duct tape was promised to deliever us from the dangers of chemical and biological weapons.

There's an interesting show on tv. I believe it's called "To catch a thief". The premise is, they warn a family or business that they're going to be burglarized, and then some ex criminals break in and shatter this illusion of safety that people have by stealing their possessions, often in broad daylight. They've even taken out a police station.

What does this tell you?

If someone wants you dead at any cost, you're dead. All that is needed is enough planning. You can't keep your children safe. You can't keep your home safe. You can't even protect yourself. We are such a fragile race.

Even natural events that have a great deal of warning, such as hurricanes deal massive casualties and property damage.

We as a people will do anything to survive. (In general) We cling to the feeble notion of safety, and adhere to rules because "that's all that protects us from chaos." But are we really safe? No.

The government feeds the fears just alittle bit. It may cause or exaggerate the coverage of events that terrify us, and then assure us that THEY can protect us. We the people in turn are talked into giving greater power to the authority. With this new power, surely we are safe.

However in this action, those that question the almighty delieverers of freedom and security are shot down, and called traitors. You need only look at history. Nazi Germany, The Soviet Union, ancient Rome. You can find this again and again. When politicians amass power, that power has to come from somewhere? It gets siphoned away from the people.

Feed the fear, and then promise safety in exchange for even greater authority. Make big promises, appear regal, and rule the people. The ignorant will in turn, defend you tooth and nail for those promises. They don't realize that power and money are more valuable than their lives.

When something becomes "unquestionable", you know someone has too much power. But what can we do? Nothing. Nothing at all. We the people are powerless. We can't protect ourselves, and they can't protect us. But they can promise protection, and in turn, they can attain the throne for those promises.

Comments made by son?

Created by: Stockburn on June 29, flags: 15, replies: 103

Hi all,

Not certain this is the correct forum, but here goes anyway. Mods, if you wish, you can move it to wherever. :)

I took some video 4 wheelin (links removed, visit the thread for external references) with my son around march of 07 time frame somewhere in the Mojave desert. This would place my son @ around 3.5 years old. Didn't really notice or really think much of it at the time until just recently re-watching the video.

In any case, in the video I sort of ignore some of his comments, probably due to the nasty terrain. He states, the "witch of the east is coming" and the "witch is here" etc. There are a few times, where he gets bothered by stating "no, no", in addition stating "the witch of the east is coming" in a very harsh voice. I beleve he said "can you hear her?".

I don't believe he has ever watched wizard of oz, although I do have him in private school, so I guess he could have picked it up from other kids.

I even say something to the effect of "sashima", what I thought he was saying, but to me it sounds like "She's coming, do you hear her?"

In any case, just thought I would throw that out there, and perhaps if there is any significance. Kinda creeps me out after watching it. Keep in mind, if you are not familiar with the area, it is barren and desolate for miles upon miles. This was my first time ever taking my son anywhere near this area on a 4 wheel trip. However, we have taken many day and night 4 wheel trips elsewhere.

Any thoughts? Thanks all and take care,

"Defenders of the Constitution are terrorists" FBI pamphlet says

Created by: LightWorker13 on June 7, flags: 14, replies: 51
Perhaps you should see exactly who your government and your establishment consider "terrorists". They handed out pamphlets to all the major police departments across the country, where they laid forth the guidelines for what a domestic terrorist is.

Defenders of the constitution are terrorists?? Home schoolers are terrorists?? Animal rights activists and environmentalists are terrorists?? Christians are terrorists?? What the hell are your leaders thinking?? Are these people out of their minds, or are they just pure evil, I dunno...

They even say that people who attempt to "police the police" are terrorists! In other words, if you don't let the police do whatever they want, you are a terrorist. If you claim driving is a right, you are a terrorist.

They are even training the police to think that any ordinary citizen is a terrorist, here is another pamphlet they handed out across Texas and other states.

(visit the thread to view linked images)

Anyone who wears levis jeans, has a cellphone or bookbag, and acts "normally" with a "nice guy image" is a potential terrorist, I mean talk about a paranoid society.

Wake up, the government are the REAL terrorists, who are looking to take away all freedoms total surveillance total police state, total command and control system where all life runs by the dictates of the State. And they are doing it by spreading fear and terror in your minds, get you suspicious and paranoid of everyone, and beg the State for more draconian laws to keep you safe. WAKE UP!

Skeptics are Not Your Enemy

Created by: schuyler on June 13, flags: 14, replies: 107

Consider the skeptic a canary for the coal mine, not your enemy. Several threads lately have lamented that skeptics are TOO skeptical and that no one will believe anything anymore. I suggest that we are ALL skeptical, depending on the topic at hand.

For example, for some time on YouTube a 'Roxanne' has been posting videos of the UFOs she shot at night on the deck outside her apartment. Video after video after video, they were all roughly the same. Roxanne would point the camera off her deck in the night and point out lights in the distance, all the while saying, "This is f'ing unbelievable!" Same words, same lights in the same locations, night after night. She also sounded kinda trippy. I mean, she was REALLY amazed at all this. Well, someone invited her on ATS to talk about her videos. She came on and we talked about them. One fellow found out where she lived, looked at a map, and discovered there was a hill across from her apartment in the distance. The hill had a winding road on it going to the top, and it had a tower on top of the hill tall enough to require navigation lights.

So this fellow said she was seeing the lights from the tower as well as the headlights of cars going up and down the hill. Technically they weren't even UFOs because they did not fly. They were lights. Pretty simple really. Her lights were explained. But how do you think she took that? Let's say not well. She stormed off the board never to be seen again, taking her "f'ing unbelievable" lights with her.

My guess would be that anyone reading this, with, alas, perhaps a few exceptions, would side with the 'skeptical' side if they saw Roxanne's videos, saw the map, saw the correlations, and realized what had happened. So, for this sighting, I'm suggesting everyone here is a skeptic.

Now, the problem with being interested in UFOs and accepting sightings as valid is that there appear to be a whole lot of people who want to create hoaxes. The signal to noise ratio is way too high: Lots and lots of noise. Why? To say they did? As intentional disinformation from an alphabet agency? Viral marketing? Just a prank? That's for a different thread: Why do the hoax? But they do. Sometimes it's overt and sometimes the guy just might be a little crazy. Who knows?

A couple of weeks ago a guy came on here pretending to be an ex-prisoner working on a chain gang who hit some sort of underground chamber. As a result of his knowledge he was put in solitary, grilled and questioned, visited by MIB types, etc. The thread encouraged him; he told a pretty good story. No one called him crazy. He was obviously under duress, had to rent computer time, just got out of prison. Poor guy; you get the picture. But half way through he suddenly said, "It's fake. I made it up." He was very well treated before he was banned, too.

Over the past sixty years we've had hoax after hoax after hoax. George Adamski, visited by humans from Venus, Mars, the Moon, Jupiter, and Saturn, all of which have a breathable atmosphere, cities, lakes, and huge civilizations. Their message? Don't use nukes because the rays affect space travel. Truman Bethurum. Rode to the planet Clarion aboard a "scow" piloted by a Latin bombshell who wore a short red dress, black velvet blouse, and red & black beret, with BIG brown eyes and well (ahem) figured. Clarion is on the other side of the moon (later sun) with a perfect crime-free worldwide civilization who are all Christians, go to church, and speak English in rhyme.

Wanna get more modern? How about Dr. Jonathan Reed, who kept an alien in his freezer. Told all about it to Art Bell. Linda Howe believed him. When things got bad he said the government wiped out his identity and tried to kill him. How about Ray Santilli of the Alien Autopsy fame. Great film, wasn't it? He admitted it was totally fake. My favorite: Billy Meier. Hey, we found the garbage can lid okay? Not for some of you. Billy's people say the lid manufacturer got the design idea after looking at pictures of the saucer. We'll probably have someone jumping on here proclaiming the Billy Cult real. If not for him, certainly for Greer, most famous now for labeling a moth an 'energy anchor being.' Great. Thanks, Steven, for keeping everyone's feet on the ground.

There are hundreds more, literally. So on the one hand we have people like Roxanne, who just don't get it, and on the other we have people who for one reason or another are trying to take advantage of the situation to make a niche for themselves. Whether this is for money or ego or something else is immaterial. For the Roxannes of the world I feel some sympathy; she's hurt that her fantasy isn't believed. For the Meier's of the world, I have no sympathy. They ought to be in prison for taking advantage of thousands of credulous believers.

A skeptic's job is to try to find the diamond in the rough. That entails asking lots of questions and trying to 'break' the story. That means finding evidence—either way! A skeptic CAN'T take your word for it because too often—you lie. So my hope is that you can look at a skeptic's job as trying to find the truth in an ocean of you know what. It's okay to believe in UFOs, but it isn't okay to accept at face value that every light in the sky is one, containing aliens from outer space.

Clinton's dump their stock holdings for cash

WASHINGTON (AP) - Bill and Hillary Rodham Clinton liquidated the contents of their blind trust upon learning it contained investments of $5 million to $25 million that could pose conflicts of interest or prove to be embarrassing to her presidential campaign.

Reading the article I can see how their hand was forced, but why didn't they reinvest the money in another blind trust? Me thinks that they don't have any faith in the economy or the stock market. I don't believe that they need the money for the presidential campaign. They're both pulling in the dough between speeches and fund raising dinners. A good bet is that they're privy to some information that the average joe isn't.

Insider trading on a national scale? I don't know if there's an official rule on this or not. Keep an eye out for more stories of other senators dumping stocks for cash just in case. :hey:

There are a fair number of people making videos, posting blogs, and commenting that Ron Paul is best chance this country has against the N.W.O. But there is not lot talk about what it means for America if he looses.

Now don't get me wrong I like Ron Paul as a candidate for the U.S. Presidency. I don't see eye to eye with him on every issue, but unlike some American (and you know who you are :P) I don't want nor need a political candidate that just says thing to get me to nod my head in approval.

But lets be honest with ourselves. The choices in 2008 will probably be Hillary Clinton and Rudy Giuliani. So with that said, then what ?

When Giuliani or Clinton wins does it mean a move to a complete police state and total burn job of our constitutional and civil rights ?

I am just really curious to know what the members of ATS think who are pinning a lot of there hopes for the future on Ron Paul.

On 8/12/05 the New York Times released more than 12,000 pages of oral histories in the form of transcripts of interviews with 503 firefighters and emergency medical responders. The interviews were conducted between October of 2001 and January of 2002 under the order of New York City's fire commissioner at the time of the attack, Thomas Von Essen, who wanted to preserve first-hand accounts of the attack. (links removed, visit the thread for external references)

Brian Becker -- Firefighter (F.D.N.Y.) [Engine 28]

So I think that the building was really kind of starting to melt. We were -- like, the melt down was beginning. The collapse hadn't begun, but it was not a fire any more up there. It was like -- it was like that -- like smoke explosion on a tremendous scale going on up there.

We were standing underneath and Captain Stone was speaking again. We heard -- I heard 3 loud explosions. I look up and the north tower is coming down now, 1 World Trade Center.

We were standing in a circle in the middle of West Street. They were talking about what was going on. At that time, when I heard the 3 loud explosions, I started running west on Vesey Street towards the water. At that time, I couldn't run fast enough. Then the building popped, lower than the fire, which I learned was I guess, the aviation fuel fell into the pit, and whatever floor it fell on heated up really bad and that's why it popped at that floor. That's the rumor I heard. But it seemed like I was going oh, my god, there is a secondary device because the way the building popped. I thought it was an explosion.

There was a plan to use a plane in 1974

Created by: ZeddicusZulZorander on June 11, flags: 11, replies: 80

If you didn't know, there WAS a plan to take a commercial plane by force of arms and use that plane to crash into the White House.

The year was 1974, 27-years before 9/11 and the plan was formed by would-be assassin Sam Byke who wanted to kill then President Richard Nixon. The Secret Service supposedly took steps such as rumored anti-air weapons and so on to prevent what they had previously considered unthinkable...a commercial aircraft used in a suicide attack.

Sam Byke was 37, married, and had 4 children. He was manic depressant and couldn't keep employment. As time went on, he began to blame the administration of the time for his and the rest of the country's problems.

The Secret Service and the FBI therefore knew of the potential back then. They even have Bicke's own audio recordings that reveal his plans to take the airliner and crash it into the White House. Both agencies knew of the potential for this type of attack yet on all fronts, they claim they never could have conceived of such a thing.

As SkepticOverlord likes to say, look to history and in this case...history proves that the public statements made are completely false.

There was a previous plan to use a plane in a suicide crash many years before 9/11. The major law enforcement agencies all know it. Any statements such as "we had no idea..." are just propaganda.

Edit: fixed some spelling.

Sex Crimes and the Vatican

Created by: Souljah on June 10, flags: 11, replies: 81

Ever wondered how many catholic priests are really abusing young girls and boys?

The Catholic Church has 50 million children in its worldwide congregation and no universal child protection policy whatsoever.

There is actually a document, written by the Vatican, which PROTECTS the priest/child abusers!

It is a policy of cover up!

"(links removed, visit the thread for external references)"

A secret document which sets out a procedure for dealing with child sex abuse scandals within the Catholic Church is examined by Panorama.

(links removed, visit the thread for external references)

was enforced for 20 years by Cardinal Joseph Ratzinger before he became the Pope. It instructs bishops on how to deal with allegations of child abuse against priests and has been seen by few outsiders.

Crimen Sollicitationis was written in 1962 in Latin and given to Catholic bishops worldwide who are ordered to keep it locked away in the church safe. It instructs them how to deal with priests who solicit sex from the confessional. It also deals with "any obscene external act ... with youths of either sex." It imposes an oath of secrecy on the child victim, the priest dealing with the allegation and any witnesses."

For example in U.S. only report tells us that almost four and a half thousand US priests have been accused of raping or sexually abusing children. How many of those have been prosecuted and proclaimed guilty? How many of them were jailed and are doing time which they should?

Looks like that the Vatican and the Catholic church protects abusers of children - scum like Oliver O'Grady - a former Irish Roman Catholic priest who molested a number of children in California from 1976 onwards, who has molested and raped boys and girls from 3 to 13 years of age.

Crimen sollicitationis is indicative of a worldwide policy of absolute secrecy and control of all cases of sexual abuse by the clergy. But what you really have here is an explicit written policy to cover up cases of child sexual abuse by the clergy to punish those who would call attention to these crimes by the churchmen.

Rule of the Church is ABOVE Rule of the Law?

First as a control; this is the sun, from space, as observed by the onboard shuttle camera on the 2007 launch of Atlantis:

It would seem we have a series of 9 photos, taken one after another of the Apollo 12 'Sun.' These photos are: AS12-46-6761 through to and including AS12-46-6769. I have only included four here.

But when analyzed for intensity, one obtains a rather interesting result:

(visit the thread to view linked images)

It would seem that the 'Sun' is inconsistent in intensity, as though it contained a light bulb...

It is my feeling that these photographs are particularly damming to the credibility of the Apollo missions. If these are fake, which I believe is almost beyond doubt, then what are the chances that much of the other footage is as well?

9/11 Bombshell:WTC7 Security Official Details, Says bombs were going off in 7 before either tower co

Created by: BeZerk on June 25, flags: 11, replies: 86

The Alex Jones show welcomed Loose Change creators Dylan Avery and Jason Burmas to discuss an exclusive interview they have conducted with an individual with high level security clearance who was inside the Office of Emergency Management in World Trade Center 7 and has descibed and detailed explosions inside the building prior to the collapse of any of the buildings at ground zero on 9/11.

While details remain scant for obvious reasons, we can reveal that the individual concerned was asked to report to building seven with a city official after the first attack on the North tower but before the second plane hit the South Tower and before their eventual collapse, in order to provide the official with access to different floors of the building.

The city official he was escorting was attempting to reach Rudy Guiliani, who he had determined was inside building 7 at that time. According to Avery and Burmas this official now works for Guiliani partners.

The individual was also asked to provide access to the Office Of Emergency Management on the 23rd floor of the building, this was the so called "bunker" that was built inside WTC7 on the orders of Rudy Guiliani.

When he got there he found the office evacuated and after making some calls was told to leave immediately. It was at this point that he witnessed a bomb going off inside the building:

"We subsequently went to the stairwell and were going down the stairs, when we reached the sixth floor, the landing that we were standing on gave way, there was an explosion and the landing gave way. I was left there hanging, I had to climb back up and now had to walk back up to the eighth floor. After getting to the eighth floor everything was dark."

The individual in a second clip detailed hearing further explosions and then described what he saw when he got down to the lobby:

"It was totally destroyed, it looked like King Kong had been through it and stepped on it and it was so destroyed i didn't know where I was. It was so destroyed that had to take me out through a hole in the wall, a makeshift hole I believe the fire department made to get me out."

He was then told by firefighters to get twenty blocks away from the area because explosions were going off all over the World Trade Center complex.

The key to this information is that the individual testifies this all happened BEFORE either tower collapsed, thus building 7 was at that point completely undamaged from any falling debris or resulting fires. It also means that explosions were witnessed in WTC7 up to eight hours before its collapse at around 5.30pm. Avery and Burmas, described how the individual had witnessed dead bodies in the lobby of 7 and was told by the police not to look at them.

This is vital information because it is in direct conflict with the official claim that no one was killed inside building 7. The 9/11 Commission report did not even mention building 7, yet here we have a key witness who told them he saw dead people inside the building after explosions had gutted the lower level.

What makes all this information even more explosive is the fact that this individual was interviewed by the 9/11 Commission as they conducted their so called investigation.

The fact that the building was not even mentioned in the report in light of this information thus becomes chilling and indicates that officials have lied in stating that they have not come into contact with evidence of explosive devices within the buildings.

Avery says that he can and will prove beyond any shadow of doubt that the individual was in building 7 on 9/11 and that what he is saying is accurate.

(links removed, visit the thread for external references)

Boy, I cant wait for the interview in the Final Cut. Debunker's will just hate the part where it says explosions going off in building7 before either Towers collapsed.

Did extraterrestrial's spark life on earth?

Created by: IMAdamnALIEN on June 1, flags: 10, replies: 177

I've wonderd this question for some time now. I have seen too much evidence that suggests we haven't been alone here on earth for ages.

From carvings in ancient egyptian tombs, the vimanas in India, to the renaissance paintings depicting strange objects in the sky. If closed minded people are saying the UFO and exeterrestrial phenomenon is a hoax then how is it logicaly possible for this "hoax" to last thousands of years? It's not, and your left with only one conclusion, we are definatly not alone and haven't been for a very long time. Just how long?

This is where I became confused and would like to have some input. Say an archaic group of extraterrestrials came to earth about 200,000 years ago. This alien race would observe/study earth and its inhabitants. Realizing the evolution of this planet has produced spectacular organisms and a plethora of diverse life. However, they saw the monkey's and ape's of this world and thought they held promise to become something more than what they were. They abduct one special ape and implant a DNA/Gene mutator of some kind. They saw that this had the effect they wanted and decided to "help" the rest of this particular species evolve quicker than the rest of the beasts. Over time these special apes became modern humans.

That is one scenario, here is another logical hypothesis. "Seeder" extraterrestrials came here before life on earth billions of years ago and jumpstarted this planet into what we know today.

Questions still remain however and will always without hard proof or outright disclosure by the alien's themselves. A question that has plagued me ever since finding out the world isn't what it appears to be, why are typical aliens bipedal and look mostly like us? If that question is solved we will have our answer to the genesis of life on earth. Are there really aliens out there that want us to become more like them? and if so what plans to they have for us? Do they want humans to join the intergalatic community, or do they just want something to rule over?

Just my thoughts.....

ABC Live 911 Coverage was Totally Fake (UPDATED) - "TV Fakery"

OK, here's smoking gun proof that the ABC live 9/11 coverage was totally fake. The footage includes layer animation glitches (a bridge that shouldn't be there at all showing up in two different places), frozen still panning, a transmission glitch showing the perp cameraman where to position the towers for the plane crash animation, and more!

You should watch it. Open your eyes!

"In the previous few days, we have been witness to a flood of new topics on 9/11 TV Fakery from a group calling themselves 911researchers.com.
